

The Script for By Love and Grace, based on the book Dyslexia My life

Hi Im Sam Sagmiller, and I have a script based on a true story that deals with overcoming adversity. In the feel of the movies Shine and A Beautiful Mind this script gives the curious public a peek into the world of adversity that 70% of juvenile delinquents deal with, but only 1% overcome. This tearjerker real life story is how one person overcame his adversity. His family was advised to institutionalize him in 2nd grade, later he was physical and mental abused. This script is packed with struggling and overcoming adversity and concludes with a Rudy feel ending. This true life person is pitching this story to you today. This is my story. Would you like to guess what the adversity is? Its dyslexia. This story is riveting, powerful, and explores a hidden disability that causes one family member to disown the main character, while another family member fights to help. The story is played out today by millions of people. The story ends with a scene that will have people standing in the aisles cheering, with tears in their eyes. So, do you have any questions or would you like to read the script and see how it impacts you?-- selling the script on here to help raise money to make it into a movie. Note not a book but a full script.
