

George Sand

A series of chapters touching on various aspects of the French novelists life and writings. George Sand (Aurore Dupin, 1804-1876) was Frances bestselling writer, rivalled in her time only by Victor Hugo. She was at the centre of French intellectual and artistic life: her circle included Liszt and Delacroix, Blazac and Flaubert. Yet she was known as much for her excessive life as for her plays, stories and enduring novels like Indiana, Lelia and Mauprat.
