

TYRANNY Within United States Courts

Richard Mack was confronted with armed robberies against himself and his family forcing them to a safe house striving for relief. His wife and children were subjected to slavery, his dad torture murdered, the author thrown into prison. He appealed to federal courts for relief, was viciously persecuted finally reaching Washington, DC. Federal judges including John Roberts, who became chief justice of the supreme court, engaged in a criminal conspiracy to violate his rights preventing him from having access to any court within the United States. The book, Tyranny Within United States Courts, is an account of that ongoing experience
