

The Legend of Vortigern (Ancient Legends Retold)

The only modern story of the legendary king who invited the English to Britain and discovered Arthurs mentor, MerlinThe tragedy of King Arthur is one segment of a vast cycle, the Matter of Britain, stretching across generations of early British kings. Vortigern is central to this cycle. King two generations before Arthur, he opens Britain to the Saxons, ancestors of the modern English. Rising from humble roots, he takes center stage at court in a crisis moment, plays and loses a vicious game of Dark Age power-politics, and is driven into exile in mountain wilderness, there to encounter dragons, demons, prophecyand a child who turns out to be Merlin. He meets a hauntingly violent end at the hands of Arthurs future father and uncle. Vortigerns is a tale of courage, cowardice, glory and crime, tragedy and treason. He is virtually forgotten by modern readersuntil now.
