

Recovered Edition of the Bulldog Record: 1928 Fall Commerce High School Yearbook

This book includes most of the recovered pages of the 1928 Fall Yearbook, Commerce High School, San Francisco, California. It is dedicated to my Mother, Winifred (nee: St. John) Mont-Eton/Chappell who was a member of this 1928 senior graduating class. In addition to the recovered pages, more information is given on Winifred, her daughter and author of this book Lorry (nee: Mont-Eton) Wagner. The author also wishes to thank Tad Brillhart for explaining the Hi and Lo split for graduating classes, which appears at the back of this book. Tads father, Harold Brillhart, taught Commerce High School Boys Physical Education Department, starting in the Fall Term of 1923 and continued teaching until the school closed around 1952. At that time this school became the headquarters of the San Francisco School District.
